

Vasathi Housing celebrates International Women's Day

Women employees of Vasathi Housing spent a day with the underprivileged children to make their day special

HYDERABAD, March 8, 2013: Vasathi Housing celebrated Women's Day with the children of the construction workers at the creche facility 'Bricks to Books', the CSR initiative of Vasathi. The unique initiative 'Adwitiya - You Are the One' was aimed at reaching out to the underprivileged children and bringing streaks of joy to their day through various activities- song and dance sessions, painting competition, theatrical frolics and recitations.

P. V. Ravindra Kumar, CEO, Vasathi Housing Ltd., said, 'Vasathi Housing has 40 % women employees and their contribution to the growth of the company is invaluable. They chose this day to spread their love and knowledge with the underprivileged children and bring smiles to their faces.'

In words of Sravani, one of the kids at Bricks to Books, 'We had a great time today. We got toys, chocolates, picture books, crayons and played games. All of us sang songs and recited poems together. We also had a drawing competition where all of us were declared winners at the end.'

Corporates

Hyderabad, Andhra Pradesh